

KNOMAD

- An open, inclusive, multidisciplinary knowledge partnership. A brain trust for the global migration community.
- Aims to generate a menu of policy choices, based on analytical evidence, evaluation of policies, data collection, and quality control through peer-review.
- Provides technical assistance and undertakes pilot projects.

Contributing Partners

Global Knowledge Partnership on Migration and Development

Thematic Working Groups

1. Data & demographics
2. Labor migration
3. Migrant rights & integration in host communities
4. Remittances & diaspora resources
5. Environmental change & migration
6. Internal migration & urbanization
7. Forced migration & development
8. Return migration & reintegration
9. Special issues (such as gender, migration of children and youth, local governments and migration, irregular migration, smuggling, and human trafficking)

Impacts

With a network of 500+ experts, KNOMAD successfully contributed to:

- Migration-related SDGs (indicator 10.7.1. on recruitment costs, 10.c.1 on remittance costs, and 17.2.3 on remittance flows)
- Incubation of Mayoral Forum on Migration
- Technical tools used for improving data and analyzing migration and remittances impact in developing countries

Outputs*

- 2 World Bank reports on migration
- 8 Migration and Development Briefs
- 7 Books and reports (including GMG Handbook, Factbook 2016, Factbook 2020)
- 11 Policy briefs
- 15+ Datasets
- 35+ Working papers
- 30+ International workshops/conferences
- 1 Data visualization tool
- Ongoing Seminars/BBLs

As of September 2019*

Key Offerings

- Data and Analytics
- Research for Solutions
- Migration Diagnostics
- Technical Assistance
- Program Evaluation
- Capacity Building
- Pilot Projects

Partnerships

A Brain Trust for the Global Migration Community:

- Governments in Sending and Receiving Countries
- International Organizations
- Civil Society/Migrant Associations
- Research Institutions
- Academia
- Private Sector

Follow us

Blog: peoplemove.worldbank.org
Twitter: @GlobalKNOMAD

Contact us

knomad@worldbank.org
www.knomad.org